How much time do you spend on homework? What kind of study habits do you have?

How do you feel about attending boarding school?

Boarding school will mean, to a degree, separation from your parents and friends. How do you feel about this?

What would be the most important advantage you would expect to find by attending boarding school?

What would be the greatest handicap you would expect to feel by attending boarding school?

What is your commitment to attending boarding school?

What are your major goals in life right now?

If you could have the opportunity to achieve only one of these goals, what goal would you strive for, knowing that its attainment would exclude all others?

Single Sex school vs. coed?

Location – nearby or distant?

Dress code – formal (coat and tie or uniform) vs. informal?

What would be the most important thing you'd be looking for in a boarding school? What would you hope to find that would be different from where you are now?

Is there anything else concerning you or concerning boarding school that would help me know you any better, or that might make a difference in the kind of school you feel you would be most happy and successful in?

If you could have any three wishes you wanted come true, what would those three wishes be?
